

The Daily Courant.

Saturday, January 10. 1719.

London, January 10.

Yesterday arriv'd a Mail from France.

From the Paris Gazette, date Jan. 14.

Lisbon, December 18.

ON the 8th Instant, 15 Ships of the Fleet of Fernambuque enter'd the River; Eight that came with them belonging to the Merchants of Porto, having taken the Road to that City. One named Nossa Senhora da Bea Viagem, was lost by the Way, but all her Men were saved. Don Lorenzo de Almeyda, who was Gouvernour of the Country, is return'd upon this Fleet, having finish'd his Time. Father Joam de Christo Procureur of the Missionaries of St. Francis in the Indies, is arriv'd from thence, having made the Journey by Land, and set out from Bom-baim the 2d of February last. He reports that the Count de Ericeyra Viceroy of the Indies had visited the Fortresses round about Goa, and had set Men to work in repairing and augmenting them with some new Works. The Arabes, and those of the Kingdom of Cambaia, had builr a Fort at Patana near Dio, which might have incommoded the Portugueze, but the Count de Ericeyra sent five Men of War of the Line, and other Ships, under the Command of Admiral Don Lopo d' Almeyda, and Don Rodrigo de Costa with Troops to attack and raze it, which they executed accordingly. The Arabes and Cambaians being assembled in great Numbers, attempted to hinder their reimbarking; but the Portugueze repuls'd them, kill'd a great Number of them, and took two of their Ships, which were richly laden. Francisco Peyrera de Sylva, Son of the General, the Captain by Land and Sea, Cajetano Joseph, and some Soldiers, were kill'd in this Action. The Arabes having made themselves Masters of Baharem, were gone to besiege Ormuz, and the King of Persia sent to demand of the Viceroy that he would send some Ships that way, having given Order at the same time for paying the Portugueze what had been due to them several Years for the Customs of Bender Congo. The Ship St. Ann arriv'd from Macao, is laden with a great Quantity of rich Merchandise of the Indies and China. Don Joam d' Amayada Gama, who has been a long Time Gouvernour of the Capitania of Paraiba, is arrived upon the Fleet lately come from the Bahia dos Todos Santos.

Madrid, Dec. 27. The King has begun again to dress himself, and to appear in his Balcony. 'Tis written from Cartagena, that Father Manuel d' Alexo, Trinitarian, was arrived there from Algier, with 265 Slaves whom he had redeem'd.

Rome, Dec. 20. On the 14th arrived an Express from Naples, which the Count de Gallasch sent away immediately to Vienna. The same Day he had Audience of the Pope, and 'tis said he demanded a Grant of the Tenth upon Ecclesiastical Estates. 'Tis reported alfo, that he demanded Passage thro' the Ecclesiastical State for 6000 Germans, who are to be sent into the Kingdom of Naples and to Sicily. The Cardinal Legate of Ferrara has received Order to raise 6000 Crowns upon the Ecclesiastical Estates of the Country, for refunding to particular Persons the Damages they sustain'd by the former Passage of the German Troops; and at the same time, the Sieur de Gli Oddi Brigadier, is to go to Naples, to show the Viceroy the Account of the Expence their Passage cost the Ecclesiastical State, which the Court of Vienna promis'd to reimburse, and which amounts to 40000 Crowns. The 15th, the Courier who had been sent to demand the Liberty of the Princess Sobieski, returned hither, and we learn that the Nuncio has not been able to obtain it. The 16th, a private Congregation of Immunity was held, and 'tis believ'd the Affairs of Spain and Sicily were therein debated. The 17th Cardinal del Giudice put up the Emperour's Arms over the Gate of his Palace, having the Day before visited the Ambassador, and been visited by him. On the 18th, a Congregation of Cardinals was held, wherein the Demand of the Emperour's Ambassador for the Passage of 6000 Germans thro' the Ecclesiastical State was consider'd; and it was resolv'd to regulate with him that they should pass by the Way of Ascoli, as being the shortest, and that they should observe a strict Discipline; and Cardinal Albani with the Sieur Banchieri had a long Conference with that Minister upon that Subject. The Sieur Banchieri was with him again the next Day, because according to the Project of the General Officers those Troops were to be above two Months in their March, and intended to Winter in the Ecclesiastical State, which would be a great Charge to the Pope's Subjects.

Venice, Dec. 24. On the 18th, the Great Council being assembled, chose for Bailly or Ambassador in Ordinary to the Ottoman Porte, the Sieur Giovanni Emo. But no Choice is yet made of an Ambassador Extraordinary to be sent thither according to the the Treaty of Passarowitz. On the 22d, a Solemn Service was celebrated in the Church of San Salvador for the Repose of the Soul of Chevalier Andrea Pisani Generalissimo, and all the Shops being kept shut that Day were adorn'd with Inscriptions in praise of the Defunct. They begin to disarm the Ships come from the Levant, and to refit some that suffer'd in the last Sea-Fight. But it being fear'd that they will not preserve so well in the Basins of the Arsenal, it has been propos'd to put several of them into the Canal of Luecca, where there are running Waters. Couriers from Naples and Milan pass by here continually going to Vienna.

Paris, Jan. 14. On the 19th of this Month was published an Ordinance of the King, declaring War against Spain, and on the 10th another was publish'd, which enjoins all the Subjects of his Majesty who are in Spain, to return into France immediately, but permitting however the French Merchants who are in Spain to remain there six Months after the Day of the Date, to draw in, sell, or transport their Effects. The same Day a third Ordinance was publish'd, whereby the Subjects of the King of Spain are permitted to remain in France six Months after the Date, to dispose of their Effects.

London, January 10.

The Letters of the 14th Instant N. S. from Paris, come by the Post arriv'd Yesterday, advise, that the Parliament of Paris have condemn'd the Manifesto publish'd by the King of Spain the 25th of December last; That the Parliament of Bourdeaux have done the same, and that the Parliament of the Kingdom will immediately follow their Example. These Letters add, that the Troops are actually in March towards the Frontiers of Spain, and that the Spanish Faction are so struck with the News of the Death of the King of Sweden, that they have lost all Hopes, for they had lain great stress upon a powerful Diversion in the North, which they flatter'd themselves with.
